

Spring- Folk Art of Florida

Featured work of over 30 Florida folk artists, with original piece by the late Taft Richardson, the bone sculptor of Sulphur Springs. Guest speakers: Dr. Kristin Congdon, Dr. Gary Monroe, Jeff Moates, Dr. Mallory O'Connor.

Looking back on 2018...It was a great season.

Summer: Florida Before Statehood

This fun exhibit featured photos, maps, and a timeline of Florida history before it was a state. Funded by Florida Humanities Council, featuring speakers: Dr. Michael Francis, (History, USF St. Pete) and Dr. Tom Pluckhahn, (Anthropology, USF Tampa).

Celebrating Juneteenth: Emancipation

Traveling exhibit: "Products of a Creative Mind," showcased African-American achievement. Our own exhibit, highlighting the history of Juneteenth and young Black achievers, became part of our permanent exhibit collection, as did panels on the history of Spring Hill, created by USF graduate students Lisa Armstrong and Alice Min.

Guest Speaker: Dr. Deborah Plant, editor of Zora Neale Hurston's Barracoon: The Story of the last "Black Cargo"

Our Annual Taste of Pumpkin Festival was held on Saturday, October 27. We had lots of activities, games, and fun for whole family. Join us again next year!

Fall: Florida Holiday Traditions

This traveling exhibit featured photos and information about holiday celebrations, and guest speakers: Dr. Elizabeth Bird (Museum Board Member) on Halloween; Dr. Gary Mormino, on Florida foods; Dr. Dell deChant on Santa Claus; Dr. Tameka Hobbs on the importance of Kwanzaa.

USF BULLS IN THE HOUSE!

THANK YOU! For helping make our events so successful: SOS [Park Clean-up], Pumpkin Festival, museum finances, speaker series, and social media.

Reminders

Being a non-profit has its challenges. While we have a new facility at our Mann-Wagon Park site, we need your help to continue our programming! And we need funding for our day-to-day operating expenses
